

The Queen Elizabeth Hall Management Committee will treat all people with equal respect, concern and consideration and recognise the contribution made to the community by all individuals. The Committee will not discriminate either directly or indirectly on the grounds of race, colour, ethnic origin, nationality, gender or sexual orientation, age political or religious belief, marital status, disability, and unrelated criminal convictions.

The Committee will, along with staff, hirers, agencies and contractors, strive to ensure that this policy is embodied in the way we operate services, in our employment practices and how we work with our partners and other agencies in the community.

Responsibility Under This Policy

The Chairman of the Management Committee is responsible for ensuring this Equal Opportunities Policy is brought to the attention of all Trustees, Committee members, hirers, employees, contractors and associated organisations.

Any complaint received, whether formally or informally, must be brought to the attention of the Trustees and Management Committee. The Chairman of the Committee will investigate and report directly to the Management Committee and Trustees on any action to be taken, if any.
